SECRET
Director's Meeting

Monday, 10 September 1951

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Jackson, Wisner and Becker.

[REDACTED]

There was also a brief discussion on relations with the Yugoslavs which was initiated by the DCI's request for advice on the log item noting Ambassador Allen's suggestion that Mr. Kristovich be given a letter of introduction to Interior Minister Rankovich. The possibility of speaking to Velebit was also mentioned. Mr. Wisner was delegated the task of recommending the best way of reopening discussions with the Yugoslavs.

[REDACTED]

The DCI noted the log item with respect to [REDACTED] and Mr. Wisner reported that [REDACTED] had been located and was under observation. In this connection, Mr. Jackson noted the offer of a New York hospital to furnish a properly qualified interne to work with CIA and it was felt that such offer might well be accepted. The DCI indicated that Mr. Wolf should handle this.

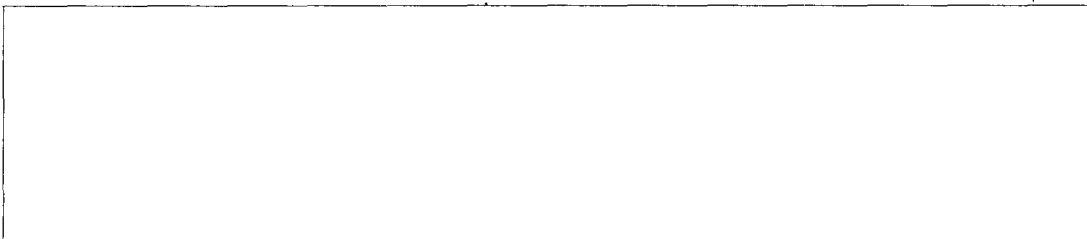

Mr. Dulles noted that "German Intelligence Service" as referred to in the O/SO log item for 8 - 10 September should be amended to read "ZIPPER" and this led to consideration of CIA's position vis a vis the British in relation to ZIPPER. The DCI indicated that he might wish to discuss this on his trip abroad and Mr. Dulles undertook to brief the DCI on this matter. The DCI expressed the tentative view that the British should be warned off this operation, but pointed out that he anticipated that when the
